Pennings and Clippings.

EXCLUDED .- Our usual variety has been excluded this week to make room for the letters incident to and proceedings of the mass meeting and barbecue at Tunnel Hill.

His HANDS FULL.-There is an editor in Virginia who is also his own compositor and pressman, who makes occasional voyages along the coast of Norfolk, as captain of the schooner Polly, who preaches on Sunday, teaches school on week days, and still finds time to take care of a wife and sixteen children.

IN A HURRY .- A paragraph, taken, we beeve, frem the Sumter (Ga.) Republican. tates that a citizen of Cherokee county, in nat State, buried his wife on Saturday, and before leaving the grave-yard, promised to marry another won an on Monday. It seems, however, that, through the influence of friends, he was deterred from consummating his yow until Tuesday, the third day after the burial

WAY UP IN MAINE .- Miss Helen M. Dressr. a girl of 16 years, addressed the people Saccarappa. Me., a few days since with eat acceptance. She went with her parents om that village to Salt Lake City and reained among the Mormons three years, then she contrived to escape. Her lecture represented to have been very interesting and quite eloquent.

THREE GIRLS DROWNED .-- Two nieces of Dr. Train, of Sheffield, Mass., aged 7 and 9 years, and a daughter of James Bradford were drowned in Sheffield, Mass., last week. in a cove where they were bathing. The names of the nieces of Dr. Train, were Mary and Gertrude Lemist.

DISCOVERIES IN AFRICA .- The African travellers, Barton and Speke, have lately discovered a lake in Eastern Africa, 3000 miles long and 90 miles wide. It is 3,700 feet above the level of the sea. Here, it is believed, is the heretofore undiscovered source of the river Niger."

MURDERS IN TENNESSEE .- In London co., killed Foster, the marshal of the county. In Roane county, the same day, a young man and being in the district and State aforesaid, neck. An officer of London, while attempting to arrest a man named Hall, was shot and mortally wounded by him.

THE WAY A TIE IS DECIDED IN KENTUCKY. Kentucky, there is a tie vote between James on the business, S. Chrisman, democrat, and Wm. C. Anderson, opposition. The Revised Statutes of the State provides that in such cases the matter shall be settled by lot drawn in the presence of the Governor, Attorney General and Sec-

BLONDIN IN A Fuss .- Mons. Derate is having a dispute with Mons. Blondin, at Ningara. He offers to " fight Blondin on the rope for $500," This will draw a crowd, should Blondin accept. The fight, we imagine, will result in one blow, one clinch, and two drowns. The world moves.

Notice

Is hereby given that application will be made at the next session of the Legislature to discontinue Miller's New Road, at Stamp Creek, and to adopt the old Road, as a better route.

MANY CITIZENS.

Dead .- David Nuckells, of Tuskegee, Ala., died from the effects of a pistol shot received while arguing politics. The affalz created intense excitement, involving bitter party

A GREAT WHEAT CROP .-- In 1858, the wheat crop of Ohio, grown on 1,698,412 acres was 17,645,483 bushels. This year, it is es. timated that there are 2,000,000 acres in wheat and the crop 30,000,000 bushels.

A FASHION WORTH INITATING .- The latest "fushion" announced from Europe is that next, one share of Pendleton Hotel Stock, of dressing very plainly when going to belonging, to J. J. Gilman, Esq. church. Some of the ladies of the "first made known on day of sale, e' sles" go up to worship in plain enlico. It is sought to encourage the attendance of the very poor, who have hitherto withheld their presence for the lack of Sunday clothes.

STRANGE .- It seems to be strange that church edifices not unfrequently give way; they generally contain more sleepers than any other sort of building.

HEAVY CHILD.-There is a child in Pennsylvania, only seven years of age, that weighs 250 pounds, and the people of that State are said to feel very proud of it,

A RUSHING BUSINESS.-Widow Rush, of Milwaukie, gave birth to three children last week. She is doing a ruch-ing business for

TO BE HUNG .- Jefferson, the negro man of whom we spoke in our last as having committed an smult, with a knife, upon the person of Mr. Henry Hartzog and his daughter, on the morning of the 6th inst., was tried on Saturday last, found guilty, and sentenced to be hung on the first Friday in October next, at the Cross Roads, near Bodiford's old store.
